SOMEWHERE, IN A CITY NOT SO FAR FROM WHERE YOU LIVE, IS A NEIGHBORHOOD THAT IS SO VERY QUIET.

Four kids get off the bus at the same stop and head to their separate houses every day. None of them talk to each other or stay outside to play, they just go inside.

But that all changes when they are met with an unusual sight at the bus stop one sunny afternoon.

Come along for the ride as Jaydon, Carter, Bree, and Tina discover there's more to life than being indoors by yourself.

In today's world of screen time and limited physical activity, "The Quiet Neighborhood" promotes outdoor fun and community. Share this fun story with your kids or students to introduce them to the joys of playing outside and being with friends.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK

★★★★★ Great story, even better message

"The author does a fantastic job showing readers the importance of activity and how the smallest changes can have a great impact." —Dina R., Amazon

★★★★★ Charming and Delightful. A Must-Read!

"Absolutely loved this book! It's incredibly cute and just great for young readers. The illustrations are adorable, and the story captures the heart. Highly recommend for a fun and engaging reading experience!" —Dana Greene, Amazon

★★★★★ Beautiful

"This book is beautifully written and illustrated. God bless the author! Hope she keeps writing. She has talked about a very urgent topic in our society!!" —Edward Augeri, Amazon

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Originally from New England, Lisa J. Marino is an operating nurse specializing in robotic thoracic surgery in Southern Florida. She rode bikes as a child, then discovered mountain biking in 2003 and was instantly hooked by the technical challenges and shaded trails.
